The Kingdom

It's a long way off but inside it
 There are quite different things going on:
 Festivals at which the poor man
 Is king and the consumptive is
 Healed: mirrors in which the blind look
 At themselves and love looks at them
 Back; and industry is for mending
 The bent bones and the minds fractured
 By life. It's a long way off, but to get
 There takes no time and admission
 Is free, if you will purge yourself
 Of desire, and present yourself with
 Your need only and the simple offering
 Of your faith, green as a leaf.

The Hospice cookie donations (along with other staple items) were delivered to both locations on September 11 and 12. Also, homemade cookies were taken to Ken & Beverly Weavil's home since they, too, were a current Hospice family.

Following our September meeting, we counted the items collected for Union Cross Elementary school and we pleasingly report a total of 413 items. Thanks to everyone who made this an overwhelmingly successful project.

At our September meeting, we decided to concentrate on our own families within the church by providing meals. On Saturday, September 18, 4 ladies met at the church to cook and meals were delivered to three of our families. This will be an ongoing mission and other families will be reached very shortly as we continue our "Inward Missions".

Our next meeting will be October 5 and all ladies are welcome to attend as we strive to follow Jesus's example as UNION CROSS REACHES OUT TO SHOW HIS LOVE.

Join us on Sunday, October 16th, for our 55th annual Homecoming celebration. This year our guest speaker will be Rev. E. Steven Ayers, Jr. (Stevie). We're happy to welcome him & his wife Rebekah back to our church. A special offering will be received to benefit our General Fund. We'll have dinner-on-the-grounds following our worship service. There will be a clean-up day to prepare our facilities and grounds for homecoming on Sat., October 8th beginning at 8:00 a.m. Rain date will be Sat., October 15th. Bring your covered dishes and be ready for a good time. There will be NO evening activities.
